Attention: Mr. Ronald T. Weakley, Business Manager

Gentlemen:

Due to the increased activity in the gas fields of its northern Divisions, Company proposes to establish the classifications of Meter Inspector and Apprentice Meter Inspector in the Division Gas Departments to cover work on measurement and regulating equipment in these gas fields and on the transmission lines in the area. Company proposes the following job definitions and wage rates.

Meter Inspector

An employee who is a journeyman and is engaged in the installation, service, repair and maintenance of various types of measurement and regulating equipment such as meters, regulators, metameter transmitters and receivers of telemetering equipment, remote control valves and associated equipment, makes gravity determinations and calculates orifice meter coefficients. His background of apprenticeship and experience must be such as to qualify him to perform these duties with skill and efficiency.

Wage rate: $108.70 per week

Apprentice Meter Inspector

An employee who is engaged in performing Meter Inspector's work as an assistant to or under the direction of a journeyman. In order to gain experience for advancement to Meter Inspector he may be required to work alone or under indirect supervision on jobs for which he has been trained and instructed. The employee's educational and general qualifications must be such that he is considered capable of attaining journeyman status.

Wage rate: Start	$ 88.15	per week
End 6 months	89.65	" "
End 1 year	92.55	" "
End 18 months	95.60	" "
End 2 years	101.95	" "

We further propose that Apprentice Meter Inspector be considered

Local Union No. 1245 - January 15, 1958 - Page Two as the next lower classification to Meter Inspector and that there be no next lower classification to Apprentice Meter Inspector.

If you are in accord with the foregoing and agree thereto, please so indicate in the space provided below and return one executed copy of this letter to Company.

Yours very truly,

PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY
