Attention Mr. Ronald T. Weakley, Business Manager

Gentlemen:

Pursuant to our discussions during negotiations to amend the Union Pension Contract, the following revision to the Group Life Insurance Plan is effective as of January 1, 1964:

1. The Group Life Insurance Plan shall be amended so that in the event of total and permanent disability (as determined by the insurance company) which occurs on or after January 1, 1964 and after age 60 but prior to age 65 the full amount of the employee's Group Life Insurance which was in force on the date his disability commenced shall be continued, without payment of the premium as long as the employee remains so disabled, but in no event beyond the employee's normal retirement date.
2. Further, for any woman who joined the Retirement Plan before January 1, 1954 and who continued in Company's employment beyond her normal retirement date the following interpretation is applicable to the provisions of the Group Line Insurance Plan:
  - a. Such a woman employee shall be eligible to participate in the Group Life Insurance Plan until the date on which she retires.
  - b. The provisions of paragraph 1 above shall apply to such a woman employee and for such purpose her Normal Retirement Date shall be determined to be the first day of the month following her 65th birthday.
