RE LETTER OF

San Joaquin Division Grievance No. LIC 25-74-7

SUBJECT

Disciplinary Layoff For Attending Funeral Without Permission

P-RC 88

October 10, 1974

MR. A. O. CLARK, Chairman
San Joaquin Division
Local Investigating Committee

MR. R. VAN DYKE, Chairman
San Joaquin Division
Local Investigating Committee

The above-subject grievance was received by the Review Committee on September 5, 1974. Since then the Pre-Review Committee has discussed the matter with the Division Personnel Department.

After considering the matter further, it is the decision of the Pre-Review Committee that the grievance will not be accepted or docketed on the Review Committee agenda. It is therefore returned to your Division for settlement in accordance with the following:

Under the facts of this case, the holiday pay lost by the grievants as a result of their disciplinary layoff will be reinstated and paid to them. Other than that, the remainder of the pay lost because of their activities will not be restored.

L. V. BROWN, Chairman
Review Committee
