Grievance Issue:

The Company transferred clerical work associated with street lights to management employees.

Facts of the Case:

The work in question was part of the Company's Business Transformation effort. This was a joint committee recommendation to improve the Street Light process for the customer. Since the filing of the grievance in 2006 the process has been reviewed and modified. The clerical work is still being performed by the operating clerical employees.

Discussion

The parties discussed the jurisdictional dispute and have had a very difficult time determining any violation of the agreement.

Decision

This case is closed without adjustment.
