Frontier Communications of Nevada (hereinafter called the "Company") and Local Union No. 1245 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, AFL-CIO (hereinafter called the "Union"), hereby mutually establishes and agrees upon the working conditions and wage schedule hereinafter set forth.

ARTICLE I

Recognition

1.1 For the purpose of collective bargaining with respect to rates of pay, hours of employment and other conditions of employment, the Company recognizes the Union as the exclusive representative of the employees for whom the National Labor Relations Board certified the Union in Case No. 32-RC-266 and other employees the parties agree to.

ARTICLE 2

Term of Agreement

2.1 This Agreement shall remain in full force and effect from May 3, 2014, up to and including May 6, 2017, and thereafter from year to year unless or until the Company or the Union serves written notice on the other at least sixty (60) days prior to said date of May 6, 2017, or any anniversary of said date, that it desires to modify, amend or terminate this Agreement or any of the terms or provisions hereof.

2.2 In the event that any provisions of this Agreement shall be made invalid by applicable legislation or be declared invalid by any court having jurisdiction in respect thereof, such action as to such provisions shall not affect the remainder of this Agreement and all other terms and provisions hereof shall continue in full force and effect as set forth herein. Upon any such judicial determination, the Company and the Union will promptly negotiate and endeavor to reach agreement upon a suitable substitute for the provision so found to be invalid.

ARTICLE III

Continuity of Service

3.1 Nothing in these rules is intended or shall be used to violate any municipal ordinance, State law or safety standard, or any other legal public requirement, nor is it intended to allow public or personal danger to continue to the detriment of either the general public, the Company or the employees.

- 3.2 The Company is a public utility engaged in the public service of telephone communications in Elko County, Nevada, and the vicinity thereof.
- 3.3 It is mutually recognized that the interests of the Company, the Union and the welfare of the general public require the continuous rendering of service by the Company, and the parties hereto agree that recognition of such obligation of continuous service is imposed upon both the Company and its employees.
- 3.4 To facilitate the continuous performance of such service, the Company agrees to meet with the Business Manager of the Union, or his designated representative, in reference to any matter coming within the scope of this Agreement and agrees that it will cooperate with the Union in its efforts to promote harmony and efficiency among all employees of the Company.
- 3.5 The Union agrees that the employees covered by this Agreement, or any of them, will not be called upon or permitted to cease or abstain from the continuous performance of their duties pertaining to the positions held by them under the Company and the Company agrees on its part to do nothing to provoke interruption of or to prevent such continuity of performance by said employees insofar as such performance is required in the normal and usual operations of the Company property. It is mutually agreed that any differences that may arise between the above parties shall be settled in the manner hereinafter provided.
- 3.6 The Union agrees for its members who are employees of the Company that they will individually and collectively perform loyal and efficient work and service and that they will cooperate in promoting and advancing the welfare of the Company and the protection of its service to the public at all times. Employees shall not engage in any work or business ventures which is in competition with the Company.
- 3.7 Neither the Company nor the Union will discriminate against any employee in the application of the terms of this Agreement because of race, color, creed, national origin, age, sex, religion, marital status, non-disqualifying physical or mental disability, sexual orientation, status as a disabled and/or Vietnam veteran, or membership or non-membership in the union. The use of masculine or feminine genders in this Agreement shall be construed as both genders and not as sex limitations.

- 4.1 The Company has and will retain exclusive right and power to manage its business and direct the working forces, including the right to hire, classify, grade, suspend, reassign, lay off, discharge, promote, demote, or transfer its employees, provided it does not conflict with the provisions of this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to or is to be construed in any way to interfere with the recognized prerogative of the Company to manage and control the business, but each employee covered by this Agreement shall possess the right of appeal through the grievance and arbitration procedures as provided by the terms of this Agreement.

- 4.2 The Company retains the right to exercise discipline in the interest of good service and the proper conduct of its business, provided that an employee who has been laid off, discharged or disciplined shall be advised of the reasons or reason for such action and shall have the right to appeal through the grievance and arbitration procedure provided by this Agreement. No discipline by temporary suspension shall be administered to any employee which shall permanently impair his or her seniority rights.

ARTICLE V

Union Security

- 5.1 The Company shall deduct from their wages and pay over to the proper officer of Union the membership dues of the members of the Union who individually and voluntarily authorize such deductions in writing. The form of check off will be approved by Company and Union.
- 5.2 It is understood that employees, individually or collectively, who conduct Union business do so at such a time and place that will not interfere with the work in progress, and in no event shall company communications equipment or Company facilities be used without permission of supervisor in charge.

ARTICLE VI

Union's Rights

- 6.1 An employee who requests time off for Union activities in addition to regular time off shall be granted such request if such time off will not inconvenience the operations of the Company or increase its operating expenses; provided further that such employee shall receive no compensation from the Company for such time off. The Union must apply in writing to the Company, five days prior, if practicable, of time being off by employee and state date, time, and how long the employee will be off for Union activities.
- 6.2 The Company agrees to permit the Union to use reasonable space for the purpose of posting officially signed bulletins upon the bulletin boards which are furnished by the Company.

- 6.3 Union may designate Union Shop Stewards, as it deems necessary for the proper administration of its affairs and for the proper execution of the provisions of this Agreement.
- 6.4 Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to limit the Company in the employment of such contract labor as, at the discretion of the Company may become necessary for the proper construction, installation, removal and maintenance of communication facilities owned, serviced, and/or operated by the Company for the renditions of proper and adequate communication service to the public. The Company agrees that it will not contract any work which is ordinarily and customarily done by its regular employees covered by this Agreement, if, as a result thereof, it would become necessary to lay off or reduce the rate of pay of any such employee and in no case shall such work be let to contract under wages or conditions less favorable than prevailing Union wages and conditions in the area applicable to the type of work to be performed. However, the Company shall not enter into any contractual arrangement for the construction, installation, removal, and/or current maintenance of plant facilities that may result in the layoff or reduction to part-time of its employees customarily performing work of the same nature as that to be provided under the contractual arrangements, with the exception that the sale of plant in place may include removal by purchaser. Such contractors may, however, be used without regard to this limitation for work performed in the classification of Material Supply Person. The parties agree that should the Company desire to employ contract labor for work performed in the classification of Plant Clerk or Draftsperson, work which the Company does not deem to be part of its core business, the Company will so notify the Union and the parties will discuss the impact of such contracting.
- 6.5 Company shall notify the Union of all new hires, promotions, transfers, downgrades, layoffs and job openings.
- 6.6 Supervisors and other employees shall not perform work normally assigned to employees in the IBEW, Local 1245 bargaining unit classifications except:
- (a) During emergencies wherein life, limb or risk of property damage is evident and no bargaining unit personnel are immediately available.
 - (b) Training or instructing Company personnel.

those Plans, except as modified herein. The EPO and PPO Plan Design Changes for 2015, 2016, and 2017 shall be as shown on the Plan Design Changes Summaries attached to this Article. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Article, for Plans in effect on January 1, 2012 and thereafter, the Company may increase any deductible or co-pay contribution by up to 25% in a calendar year. Domestic partner coverage will be made available in accordance with the Plans.

Effective January 1, 2015, the Company EPO Plan will be considered a “buy up” from the Company PPO Plan. The employee is responsible for any premium cost above and beyond the Company contribution for the PPO Plan –if the premium for the EPO Plan is higher than the premium for the PPO Plan.

Effective January 1, 2015, employees who enroll in any Medical Plan option will be responsible for the full amount of the Transitional Reinsurance Fee and the Patient Centered Outcome Research Fee required by the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (PPACA). Payment for these taxes and fees will be made through payroll deduction in the same manner as the employee’s premium contributions.

The Company may make changes, additions, or deletions to these plans, and may drop or add plans, provided:

- (b) The changes apply to a majority of Frontier Communications employees covered under such plan, and
- (c) The Company provides the Union with no less than 60 days notice of any intended changes and meets to discuss these changes with the Union.

This obligation is accepted notwithstanding the recognition that PPO availability is not within the control of the Company and that plan content and/or networks will be determined by the PPO, or Third Party Administrator

In the event that any dispute arises as to whether the proposed change does or does not reduce the overall level of benefits, the dispute will be referred to expedited arbitration without exhaustion of the grievance procedure. If the arbitrator determines that the overall level of benefits is less than those in effect on January 1, 2014, as modified herein, the plans in effect on that date, as modified herein, shall be restored as soon as administratively possible after the arbitrator’s decision.

Effective January 1, 2012, temporary employees will not be eligible to participate in any of the Group Insurance and Retirement Plans provided for under this Article 7.

Effective June 1, 2014 new hire eligibility for all Company medical, dental and vision plans shall be the first month following ninety (90) days of employment.

Effective June 1, 2014, employee and dependent(s) medical, dental and vision coverage will terminate on the same date employment terminates. Coverage under COBRA may be available.

- 7.2.1 Effective January 1, 2012, and thereafter, an additional "Tobacco User Premium" equal to 10% of the premium (or premium equivalent) cost for single coverage in the medical plan that the employee elects will also be assessed if the employee and/or a covered spouse/domestic partner is a tobacco user.

- 7.4 The employee share of premiums (or premium equivalent) for the Vision Plan shall remain at 50%.

Within ninety (90) days of the ratification date of this agreement, designated representatives of the Company and the IBEW will meet to discuss current best practices and potential medical plan options to attempt to ensure reduced health care costs for both the employees and the Company going forward. The Union will be given the opportunity to present information to the Company which may include presentations from PG&E, NV Energy, IBEW/NECA and others. The Company agrees to give any plans presented by the Union full and fair consideration.

Once the Union has had an opportunity to make their presentations to the Company, the Company agrees to respond to the Union within sixty (60) days. Should further discussions be necessary, the parties agree to meet as soon as practicable.

ARTICLE VIII

Status of Employees

8.1 Employees of the Company covered under this Agreement shall be designated as regular full-time, regular part-time, and temporary.

8.2 (a) All new employees of the Company will be considered as probationary employees for the first six (6) months of employment and may be terminated at the discretion of the Company so long as the termination is not discriminatory and is not for the purpose of keeping the jobs filled with probationary employees. At the end of the six (6) month period, they will cease to be probationary employees and will rank in seniority from the date of their original hiring.

(b) A temporary employee who has been laid off and is subsequently rehired (full-time, regular part-time) will be required to fulfill a new six (6) month probationary period on each occurrence of reemployment.

8.3 (a) Through December 31, 2011, temporary employees shall accrue the following benefits: medical/dental insurance, sick leave, vacation, and holidays upon completion of nine (9) months of cumulative service. For this provision, cumulative service shall start accruing as of August 1, 1988, or the effective date of this contract, whichever is later (b) Temporary employees who are subsequently reclassified to regular status shall accrue seniority and benefits from the last date of hire. This section shall apply to all employees regardless of their date of hire.

- 8.4 (a) A regular full-time employee is one who has satisfactorily completed his probationary period and is assigned forty (40) hours of work per week.
- (b) Regular part-time employees are those who are scheduled to work less than eight (8) hours per day or less than forty (40) hours per week.
- (c) Temporary employees are those hired for a specified project or limited period, with the understanding that their employment may be terminated upon completion of the project, and who employment is expected to be more than three (3) weeks in duration, but not more than nine (9) months, except that consistent with operational needs, such time may be extended by mutual agreement between the Company and the Union.
- 8.5 There shall be two types of seniority - namely, Company seniority and District seniority. Company seniority, defined as the length of service since the last date of hire, shall be considered in such matters as selections of vacation period. District seniority, defined as the length of service since the last date of starting work under this specific Agreement, shall be considered in such matters as bidding, layoff, and rehiring of laid off employees.
- 8.6 The Company shall post up-to-date seniority lists at all headquarters at least once every quarter.
- 8.7 Company and District seniority for employees who are members of the armed forces shall accrue while they are absent on military leave.

ARTICLE IX

Hours of Work

- 9.1 The working day shall consist of eight (8) hours in one (1) day. The regular workday shall be scheduled between 6:00 a.m. and 9:00 p.m. For shifts scheduled to end after 6:00 p.m., an employee will be paid a wage differential of five percent (5%) of the employee's basic hourly wage rate for each hour worked after 6:00 p.m. on such shifts. The shift premium shall be added to the basic rate of pay for purposes of computing overtime.
- 9.2 The workweek shall begin at 12:01 a.m., Sunday and end Saturday at 12:00 midnight, the same as a calendar workweek.
- 9.3 Monday through Friday shall constitute the normal workweek. If operating needs require it, the Company may establish a Tuesday through Saturday workweek and/or Sunday coverage. In the event the Company is to establish Sunday coverage, the Company and Union shall meet to discuss the appropriate workweek and the assignment of employees. The assignment of employees shall be determined by district seniority unless otherwise agreed to by Company and Union.

9.4 (a) If operating needs require it, Company may schedule employees to work an eight (8) hour shift other than provided in Section 9.1. If such a schedule is established, the shift shall constitute eight (8) consecutive hours including a one-half (1/2) hour paid meal break. Employees must have at least seventy-two (72) hours notice prior to being assigned the shift. Employees will be assigned to such shifts for a minimum of five (5) consecutive work days, except that this requirement need not apply in situations where work is performed outside of regular hours in order to minimize the impact of a customer service outage (for example, a switch upgrades or a cut-over done overnight). The assignment of employees shall be determined by district seniority unless otherwise agreed to by Company and Union.

(b) Employees scheduled to work such assignments as stated in 9.4(a) shall receive a fifty-five cent (55 cents) per hour shift premium. The shift premium shall be added to the basic rate of pay in computing overtime.

9.5 Notwithstanding any other Section of this Article, the Company may establish a four-day work week, composed of four (4) ten (10) hour shifts (not including unpaid meal periods), as a normal 40 hour work week. In such cases, the total number of hours constituting a five-day normal work week will be scheduled over four days of the calendar week, with at least two (2) consecutive days off and at least one (1) of these two (2) consecutive days off on either a Saturday or Sunday. Subject to the needs of the business, the Company will endeavor to provide both three (3) consecutive days off and at least one (1) of these three (3) consecutive days off on either a Saturday or Sunday.

(A) When a four-day schedule is in effect, the duration of normal shifts as specified in the Agreement shall be considered to be expanded accordingly in their starting and/or ending times.

(B) In administering four-day work weeks, the Company will first offer four-day work weeks to qualified employees in the affected classification and location on a voluntary basis in seniority order. If there are insufficient qualified volunteers, four-day work weeks will be subject to the shift selection provisions of the general Agreement.

(C) When a four-day schedule is in effect as a normal work week, overtime payments shall be made only for time worked in excess of 40 hours in a week, in excess of 10 hours in a day, or on a Holiday.

(D) Pay allowances for absent time (including sick leave) occurring during four-day work weeks will be subject to the conditions specified in this Agreement. Otherwise, pay treatment will be handled on an hourly basis.

(E) Vacation time (including Optional Holidays under Article 16) will be charged

For example, if an employee takes off one day of a 4-day work week, tens hours of vacation time (1.25 days) will be charged. If an employee takes off an entire 4-day work week, 5 days of vacation time will be charged.

(F) For weeks in which an employee has jury duty, and calendar weeks containing the eight (8) named Holidays recognized under Article 16, Section 16.1, the Company will revert to a five-day schedule. With management approval, for weeks with named Holidays, an employee may stay on a four-day work week, take off the named Holiday, and use two hours of Optional Holiday time on the named Holiday to cover the 10-hours off. Where the named Holiday falls on an employee's non-scheduled day, the employee may, with management approval, schedule another day off and use two hours of optional

9.6 (a) The Company may schedule employees to standby making them available for duty. Such assignments shall be rotated among those qualified to perform the functions for which the standby is assigned and employees assigned will receive pay for each hour of standby according to the formula listed below. Such pay shall be in addition to any call-out time.

$$\frac{2 \times \text{the hourly rate of pay}}{24} + $.50$$

(b) The Company will, as much as practicable, endeavor to equally distribute standby assignments, within a classification, to the extent of their duration, including equalization of assignments involving holidays.

(c) Employees assigned to standby may also be assigned a Company vehicle in order to respond to call-out from their home provided they live within twenty-five (25) road miles from their regularly established headquarters.

(d) The Company will provide a cellular telephone for use by those on standby for the period of time on standby. The Company will provide a lap top computer for use by those on standby for central office trouble for the period of time on standby.

(e) For weeks in which an employee has jury duty, and calendar weeks containing the eight (8) named Holidays recognized under Article 16, Section 16.1, the Company will revert to a five-day schedule. With management approval, for weeks with named Holidays, an employee may stay on a four-day work week, take off the named Holiday, and use two hours of Optional Holiday time on the named Holiday to cover the 10-hours off. Where the named Holiday falls on an employee's non-scheduled day, the employee may, with management approval, schedule another day off and use two hours of Optional Holiday time to cover the 10-hours off.

9.7 Employees shall report to their appropriate headquarters and then shall travel from job to job on Company time.

(a) On those occasions where an employee is assigned to report to an alternate location which involves an overnight stay, the Company will endeavor to provide the employee as much advance notice of the overnight assignment as is reasonably possible, subject to business need.

ARTICLE X

Overtime

10.1 Overtime is defined as (1) time worked in excess of forty (40) hours in a work week; (2) time worked in excess of eight (8) hours during a scheduled work day; and (3) time worked on a holiday.

(a) Employees who are excused with pay on vacation or on a holiday will be credited with the equivalent of time worked for purposes of computing overtime.

(b) Time off due to illness or disability will not be counted as time worked for purposes of computing overtime.

10.2 Except as provided elsewhere, overtime worked (as defined in 10.1) shall be paid at one and one-half (1.5) times the straight rate of pay, including any differentials and/or shift premiums. Time worked on holidays shall be paid at one and one-half (1 ½) times the straight time rate, including any differentials and/or shift premiums. Overtime worked on Sunday will be paid at two times (2x) the employee's hourly straight time rate of pay. There shall be no pyramiding of overtime rates and/or premium rates calling for payment of one and one-half times (1 ½ x) the employee's basic rate of pay.

10.3 (a) Employees called out for overtime duty shall receive a minimum of two (2) hours, including travel time, at the applicable overtime rate. However, where an employee is on standby status and is able to clear trouble without leaving his home, the minimum payment shall be one (1) hour at the applicable overtime rate. The minimum will not apply if it extends into the employee's next scheduled shift.

(b) Travel time shall be considered as time worked and shall be paid for at the applicable overtime rates. Overtime compensation will begin at a time mutually agreed upon by both parties.

(c) The Company will provide as much notice as possible for overtime.

10.4 (a) Overtime will be distributed as equally as is practicable among qualified employees in a classification.

(b) Prearranged overtime twenty-four (24) hours notice. Twelve (12) hours off between shifts.

(c) Emergency overtime is any time not prearranged. All hours worked would be applicable to the overtime rate. Time will begin at time of call or when mutually agreed upon by both parties.

10.5 (a) Meal times during periods of overtime work shall be:

Breakfast – One and one-half (1 1/2) hours prior to starting time

Lunch – 12:00 noon or midnight

Dinner – one and one-half (1 1/2) hours after quitting time.

(b) When working overtime after the regular day or shift which the employee was not notified of prior to reporting to work; or, when called for overtime work at night, the sixth (6th) or seventh (7th) day of a defined work week, or holidays, the Company shall provide meals as defined below unless the employee is returned to headquarters on or before meal time. When instructed before quitting time to report for duty the regular daily starting time, the employee shall provide his or her own lunch, the same as is regularly done on other days.

(c) The intent of the meal provision is to provide employees an adequate meal, comparable to the one disrupted, and reasonable in price insofar as is practicable. To the extent that the Company authorizes the employee to purchase a meal in lieu of the Company providing a meal, employees shall be reimbursed for actual meal costs, provided receipts are furnished. The Company has the right to recover or deny excessive meal charges.

(d) Employees with an overtime meal due them under these provisions who are released from duty prior to eating such a meal, shall be entitled to such meal and one-half (1/2) hour compensation at the applicable overtime rate. There shall be no break in the overtime pay allowed for eating if such work assignment continues beyond the meal period.

(e) While attending Company arranged training programs or while traveling out of town on Company authorized business, employees will be provided meals

Out of pocket expenses for incidentals shall be submitted for reimbursement using personal expense forms. In addition, where necessary, employees shall be provided with a Frontier Communications telephone credit card. Employees assigned to travel for the purpose of attending Company arranged training programs will be provided with transportation or mileage reimbursement for use of personal vehicle (at the IRS mileage allowance) if authorized by the Company. (The Company realizes that the employee may frequently prefer to drive his/her personal vehicle, and the Company will take such preferences into account in making its decision as to mode of transportation).

- 10.6 If an employee has worked for eight (8) hours or more at the overtime rate during the sixteen (16) hour period immediately preceding the beginning of his or her regular work hours on a work day, such employee shall be entitled to a rest period of eight (8) consecutive hours on the completion of such overtime work.
- (a) There shall be included as hours worked at the overtime rate in such sixteen (16) hour period any travel time to which the employee is entitled when emergency or prearranged work is performed.
 - (b) Hours worked prior to an eight (8) hour rest period shall not be included in computing another period of overtime work.
 - (c) If the eight (8) hour rest period in whole or in part overlaps the employee's regular work hours, he shall nevertheless receive straight time pay for the extent of the overlap.
 - (d) If the rest period overlaps his regular work hours but does not extend into the second half of his workday, the employee may be excused from reporting for work until the beginning of the second half of his workday. If the rest period extends into the second half of his workday, the employee may be excused from reporting for work until the following workday.
 - (e) Notwithstanding the foregoing, an employee may be required to work during regular work hours on a workday without having a rest period of eight (8) hours, in which event he shall be paid at one and one-half (1 1/2) times his regular straight time rate of pay, including any shift and job differentials, for all work performed until he has been relieved from duty for at least eight (8) hours.
- 10.7 It is the intent of the parties that all overtime shall first be offered to employees of the Company. However, overtime that is directly connected to a specific project that is solely assigned to a contractor may also be assigned to the contractor.

ARTICLE XI

If no written bid response forms are received from regular qualified employees within a period of ten (10) working days after the job classification is posted, and no bid responses are received from qualified temporary employees, the Company may then fill the job from outside the Company.

11.2 (a) When a temporary vacancy occurs in a regularly established classification, which constitutes movement, it shall be filled by the senior sufficiently qualified employee if practicable. If the temporary assignment is expected to last more than fourteen (14) working days, then senior employee sufficiently qualified, if not immediately available, may have the option to take assignment.

*If not practicable to move senior sufficiently qualified employee to promotional classification, management will notify employee of reasons thereof.

(b) Employees may file transfer requests for lateral movement. When temporary vacancies occur, transfer requests will be considered equally with promotional movement based on seniority and sufficient qualifications.

(c) Once an employee has been assigned to a temporary vacancy that employee shall remain in the position for the duration of the vacancy, except as noted above.

(d) When an employee has accepted a temporary position, that employee must reschedule vacation to meet the department's needs in which the position exists.

11.3 (a) Employees may file their bid response in the Telephone Business Office or by U.S. mail to the Vice President or his designate. However, the Company need not consider any bid response forms postmarked after the closing date specified in 11.1., above.

11.4 It is understood and agreed that in all cases of transfer, promotion, decrease of personnel or recall after layoff, the following factors shall be considered and where factors 1 and 2 are sufficient, factor 3 shall govern:

1. Knowledge, training, ability, skill, adaptability and efficiency.
2. Physical fitness required for the job.
3. District seniority.

- 11.5 Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement, employees who have been displaced from a classification as a result of a reduction in work force shall have preferential rights to return to their former classification. This option must be utilized by the employee at the first opportunity.
- 11.6 In filling existing vacancies wherein the Company elects to train inexperienced persons, placing such persons at other than the top rate of pay, consideration shall be given to eligible incumbent employees in accordance with the provisions of this Article. If the vacancies cannot be filled in accordance with this Article, then the Company may make a selection from outside the bargaining unit.
- 11.7 An employee selected to fill a permanent vacancy shall not be eligible to bid on another permanent vacancy for a period of six (6) months, unless the opportunity represents a promotion.

ARTICLE XII

Layoff and Demotion Due to Lack of Work

- 12.1 When the Company determines that conditions require a reduction of forces (defined as a reduction in the number of regular employees in a classification in a work location or district), or when bumping occurs during a work relocation, the following procedure shall be followed:
- (a) The Company shall notify the Union in writing not less than fifteen (15) days prior to any layoff, submitting the names, classifications and date of last hire of the employees to be laid off and will simultaneously notify the employee to be laid off.
 - (b) Employees in the classification affected within a District having the least district seniority shall be laid off first.
 - (c) Such laid off employees shall have the opportunity to fill any existing vacancy in the district provided the employee has the qualifications to perform the new job.

 - (f) In no event may an employee displace into a high paying classification.

6 months but less than 2 years	1
2 years up to a maximum of 30 years =	1 week for each year of service, or a portion thereof

Based on the current wage rates in effect at the time of termination.

- 12.4 If an employee who has received a layoff allowance is re-employed and the number of weeks since the effective date of leaving is less than the number of weeks' pay upon which the layoff allowance was based, exclusive of any payments in lieu of vacation, the amount paid to the employee for the excess number of weeks shall be considered as an advance to the employee by the Company and repayment of this amount shall be made at the time of reemployment or through payroll deduction of ten percent (10%) per week of the employee's basic weekly wage rate until the amount is fully paid.
- 12.5 If an employee who has been laid off and given a layoff allowance is subsequently re-employed and laid off, the layoff allowance in the case of the second layoff or of any subsequent layoff shall be based upon the employee's total service less any prior layoff allowance received and not refunded to the Company.
- 12.6 A regular employee who is laid off because of lack of work shall resume his status as a regular employee in accordance with rules and regulations of the Company's benefit plans if he returns to employment within one (1) year. However, employees who leave the service of the Company for any other reason shall, if and when re-employed, be considered as new employees and shall be required to complete a new probationary period.
- 12.7 Notwithstanding other provisions of this Agreement, regular and temporary employees who are laid off for lack of work, shall be given preferential rehire rights over other persons, to a vacancy in their former classification and status for a period of eighteen (18) months from their last day worked, provided the employee is still qualified to fill the vacancy and available to return to work within two (2) weeks from the date registered notice is sent to the last address furnished the Company. The recall of laid off employees shall be on a last laid-off, first called basis.

- 12.8 No severance pay shall be paid to an employee who is laid off as a result of any sale of the property if the employee is offered a comparable position by the purchaser or successor employer.

- 13.2 Expenses for in or out of town travel are to be charged using the Company's procurement card. In those instances where the procurement card is not accepted, the employee will be reimbursed for all authorized incidental expenses and/or up to $23 for three meals, based on receipts submitted for reimbursement using personal expense forms. The Company shall challenge one (1) of those nominees presented; the Union shall likewise challenge one (1). The party having first (1st) challenge shall be decided by lot. The nominee so selected shall become the third (3rd) arbitrator.
- 14.5 The Board of Arbitration shall conduct a hearing on the matter at issue and both parties shall be allowed to present such evidence and make such argument as they see fit. - 16.1 (a) All regular full-time employees are entitled to receive eight (8) hours of holiday pay at their straight time rate of pay for the following holidays:

ARTICLE XVII

Paid Time Off (PTO)

- 17.1 PTO eligibility: PTO is an allotted number of excused paid days provided to each employee for such things as personal illness, family matters or personal business as well as for vacation. An employee's total annual allocation of PTO days is available as of January 1 of each year because employees are permitted to borrow prospectively from their annual allocation within the same calendar year. In all instances, use of PTO is subject to the approval of the employee's supervisor.

Regular employees will be granted PTO days in each calendar year on the following basis:

Use of PTO

PTO can be used for the following purposes:

- Vacation days/ Time off
- Your own non-work related illness/injury
- Religious holidays
- Court appearances
- Dr. appointments during work hours
- Emergencies
- For the care of an immediate family member
- In certain situations, for otherwise unpaid Family/Medical Leave (Please consult the Family and Medical Leave Policy for more information about the use of PTO during Family/Medical Leave).
- Other absences at the discretion of the employee's manager

Employees may use PTO days in hourly increments based on an 8-hour workday.

Using PTO for Short Term Disability

Each employee is required to use PTO time for their first day of Short Term Disability leave.

How PTO is Accrued

Each employee will accrue PTO days on a monthly basis, earning one-twelfth of his/her total allotment on the 16th of each month. Length of service is defined as time from each employee's date of hire.

Length of Service Allocation (as of date of hire)	Monthly Accrual	Annual
90 days to less than 5 years hours	1.333 days	16 days or 128
5 years but fewer than 10 years hours	1.75 days	21 days or 168
10 years but fewer than 15 years hours	1.916 days	23 days or 184
15 years but fewer than 20 years hours	2.25	27 days or 216
20 years or more hours	2.5	30 days or 240

PTO for part-time employees is based on the percentage of full time hours worked by the employee. For example, a part time employee who works 20 hours per week would be eligible for 10 days or 80 hours of PTO. All temporary employees as well as part-time employees who work less than 20 hours per week are not eligible for PTO.

For new hires, PTO is accrued on the 16th of the month following 90 days. For example if you are hired in March, your PTO accrual begins on June 16th. An employee accrues at 1.333 days for a total of 12 days the first year.

PTO Carryover

Employees are not permitted to carryover unused PTO days/hours. Certain states have laws that may supersede the corporate policy. Please consult with your Human Resources Representative if you have any questions regarding local legislation. Certain extraordinary business circumstances may prevent individuals from the ability to take PTO time. Prior approval to carry over unused PTO time for a maximum of 5 days in this circumstance only must be received from the Senior Vice President and head of Human Resources prior to December 31 of the year in which it cannot be taken.

PTO AT TERMINATION

Employees who leave before the end of the year will be paid for earned but unused PTO. If an employee has taken more PTO than the employee accrued and leaves the Company, the employee's final paycheck will be adjusted.

EFFECT OF LEAVES ON ACCRUED PTO: Employees do not accrue PTO time during leaves of absence whether the leave of absence is unpaid or compensated through short- or long-term disability. In any month in which an employee's leave begins or ends, whether the leave is unpaid or compensated through short- or long-term disability, the employee will only accrue PTO in such a month if the employee has completed at least eighty-six (86) regular hours of work (including excused paid time off, but excluding overtime) in that month. For months in which an employee does not accrue PTO, the employee's PTO allotment will be reduced using the table in Section 17.1(a).

17.3 PTO Pay. Payments per week of PTO will be equal to the employee's basic hourly wage rate times the hours the employee is regularly scheduled to work in a normal week.

- a. PTO time will continue to accrue during time off due to the following:
 - i. Occupational accident(s) not in excess of one year;
 - ii. Company paid time on account of holidays, vacations, jury service, or death in the employee's family;
 - iii. Any excused time taken off by the employee (without pay by the Company) in order to permit the employee's participation in required reserve, or National Guard, Military Service training (normally not more than two weeks); or,

Time off duty as a result of the employee's induction into military service, provided the employee has been employed for at least twelve (12) consecutive months prior to the employee's induction.

17.4 PTO SCHEDULING

- a. By November 15 of each year, the Company will post on appropriate bulletin boards a schedule showing the PTO days, which are available to each employee for the upcoming year.
- b. Between November 30 and December 31, the Company will route the PTO selection schedule. The first routing will be for weeks only; at this time, each employee shall select no more than two (2) full weeks' vacation. The second routing will be for additional weeks only. The third routing will be for full days only.
- c. Half days and hour increments will be considered on a first-come, first-serve basis, and approval is based on the needs of the business.
- d. Between January 1 and February 1, the Company will establish the schedule for all employees. The Company will give consideration to each employee's seniority and choice of PTO as is practical and consistent with the needs of the business. Employees not making their PTO selection during the initial routing will forfeit their seniority selection rights.

On or before February 1, the Company shall post the PTO time schedule for employees. Employees shall make their requests to schedule PTO to their immediate supervisor prior to the beginning of their scheduled tour of duty. Such day(s) of PTO will be granted to employees upon request, needs of the business permitting.

17.5 Employees must use any accrued PTO coincident with any unpaid absence from work associated with a personal leave of absence, with a leave under the Family Medical Leave Act ("FMLA"), with a Military Leave (except that an employee shall not be required to use any available PTO coincident with the normal two (2) week summer reserve training), and/or with the first one (1) days of unpaid absence due to illness or injury that precedes an employee's receipt of short-term disability benefits provided under Article 10.

17.6 A claimed violation of this Article may be grieved and arbitrated pursuant to the applicable provisions of this Agreement.
