

THE TRIAL LAWYERS ARE HIDING IN THE SHADOWS.

Recently, a trial lawyer front group called “Up from the Ashes” has emerged in Sacramento presenting itself as a coalition of wildfire victims.

While the group’s leader might have a compelling story, emails have revealed that he is a paid lobbyist for the trial lawyers. Even the group’s treasurer is a leading trial lawyer and their public filing lists them as working on behalf of trial lawyers.

They may be trying to hide, but the facts are clear. The trial lawyers have billions of dollars in legal fees at stake.

Don’t be fooled by trial lawyers hiding in the shadows.
