TCIA Grant Funds Allotted to Teach Safe, Accident-Free Electrical Hazards Work Practices

TCIA was recently awarded a federal grant in the amount of $124,746 from the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA).

The grant, SH27671SH5, was awarded through the Susan Harwood Training Grant Program, which provides funding for nonprofit organizations to conduct in-person, hands-on training and educational programs for employers and workers on the recognition, avoidance, and prevention of safety and health hazards in their workplaces.

These select workshops, financed 100 percent through federal funds, will be offered to affected employees and owners of small businesses, including limited-English, low-literacy, and hard-to-reach workers.

Eligibility: Full- or part-time commercial tree care company employees and owners. Unemployed workers who want to work in the industry.

Registrations from one company are capped at 5, until one week before the workshop when all empty seats are released. Sorry, no walk-ins. Registration is transferrable.

Fee: FREE (Lunch is not provided)
