Subject; Settlement of R.C. Cases -De Sabla 10-64-3 and 10-64-15

(p. 53) 10-64-3- Harold Oaks -- Oaks has been paid the $15.14 due him.

10-64-15 - William Edmonds - As of July 22, 1965 Edmonds had not yet been paid - I am advised that Company requested Edmonds to make out new time cards covering the days and time in question in the grievance and that Edmonds had refused to make out such cards until he received notice from the Union as to what settlement had been agreed to, and that Company was holding up the payoff until new cards are made up. The steward in the headquarters was made aware of the settlement agreed to and will advise Edmonds -- how much longer it will take to get the payoff made, and whether Edmonds will or will not make out new cards to replace those previously turned in I don't know - since settlement of the grievance Edmonds has been awarded a job in the Drum division and is leaving De Sabla so I will be out of touch with him from here on.
