- (b) It is understood and agreed that all the rights, powers or authority the Company had prior to the signing of this Agreement are retained by the Company, except those which are clearly and specifically relinquished in the Agreement.

4.9 ASSIGNMENT OF WORK

With respect to the assignment of work, the controlling principle under this Agreement is that the Company may assign work in a manner that allows it to maximize its operational efficiency, to provide the best possible customer service at a highly competitive cost, and to consistently outperform its competitors in every facet of the business. The provisions of this Agreement shall be construed and administered to promote the principle and objectives stated above. In the event there is more than one job classification set forth in this Agreement, job duties shall be assigned and performed by all classifications, consistent with employees' qualifications, experience, training, and personal and public safety considerations, without regard to any work jurisdiction limitations and in a manner that accomplishes the purposes of this Section.

4.10 NEW JOB CLASSIFICATIONS

Whenever the Company determines it appropriate to create a new job classification in the bargaining unit, it shall proceed as follows:

- (a) The Company shall notify the Union in writing of the new job classification and shall furnish a general job description, and a proposed initial compensation package (consisting of any or multiple forms of compensation, not employee benefits), for the classification.

- (b) The Union shall have the right, within twenty (20) days from the receipt of notice from the Company, to initiate negotiations concerning the initial compensation package.
- (c) If negotiations are not so initiated, the Company may proceed to staff the new job classification and the compensation package provided by the Company shall remain in effect.
- (d) If negotiations are initiated pursuant to paragraph (b), above and agreement is reached between the parties within the twenty (20) days following the Union's receipt of notice from the Company concerning the compensation package, the Company may proceed to staff the new job classification using the agreed upon compensation package.
- (e) If negotiations are initiated pursuant to paragraph (b), above, and if the parties are unable to reach agreement within the twenty (20) days following receipt of notice from the Company, the Union may, within ten (10) days of the expiration of the twenty (20) day negotiation period, request that the issue of an appropriate compensation package be submitted for resolution to a neutral third party. Within seven (7) days of such demand, each party will submit its final proposed compensation package to the other party, which cannot thereafter be changed. At that time, the Company may then also proceed to staff the new job classification using its proposed compensation package.
- (f) Third Party Review
 - 1. The neutral third party shall be selected by mutual agreement from among those who possess acknowledged expertise in the area of employee compensation.
 - 2. The parties may submit all evidence deemed relevant to the issue to the neutral third party. At the request of either party, a hearing shall be held to receive such evidence. Any such hearing shall be held within thirty (30) days after the matter is referred to the neutral third party. While it is not intended that the third party undertake a full and complete job evaluation study, he or she shall review other comparable or relevant job classifications and their compensation packages for comparison purposes, and may make an on-site inspection of the workplace and conduct a reasonable number of interviews of incumbents.
 - 3. In determining an appropriate compensation package, the neutral third party will assure that the compensation package permits the Company to be competitive in both its operations and in seeking applicants in the relevant marketplace, and that the new job classification is compensated equitably.
 - 4. A written decision as to the appropriate compensation package will be rendered by the neutral third party within forty-five (45) days of the date that the neutral third party was selected. In the event that the neutral third party determines that a different compensation package than the one established by the Company is appropriate, the new schedule shall be placed in effect retroactive to the date the change or new job was implemented, except that in no event shall the retroactive effect exceed 120 days.

5. The costs of the third party neutral, and any associated administrative costs imposed by a third-party administrator to which the parties have mutually agreed, will be borne by the Company.

4.11 AGREEMENT BINDING ON SUCCESSORS

This Agreement shall be binding upon the successors and assignees of the Company and no provisions, terms or obligations herein contained shall be affected, modified, altered, or changed in any material respect by the consolidation, merger, sale, transfer, reorganization or assignment of the Company, or by any change in the legal status, ownership or management thereof.

7.2 REST PERIODS - Two (2) paid fifteen (15) minute rest periods shall be provided and will be inclusive of a regular eight (8) hour shift. Such rest periods shall be taken on Company premises (for those employees who are assigned to work in a Company building) in the first and second half of the shift.

7.3 MEAL PERIODS - There shall be an unpaid meal period on each shift and observed on or about the midpoint of the shift. The period shall be no more than sixty (60) minutes. In the event an employee is required to work more than 10 hours in a day, the employee may take a second unpaid meal period of 30 minutes.

7.4 EXCHANGE OF SHIFTS

An employee will be permitted, with prior approval of the Company, to exchange shifts. Such exchange of shift shall not cause the employee to work more than forty (40) hours in any one week or cause to create overtime pay for any of the involved employees.

7.5 FOUR DAY WORK WEEKS

Note: In the event the provisions of California law governing alternative workweeks (Labor Code Section 511) are deemed applicable to collectively bargained-for employees, the scheduling of a 4 day work week with 10 hour shifts shall be governed by the provisions of that Section, but only to the extent the provisions of this Section 7.5 are inconsistent with the provisions of Labor Code Section 511. Any provisions of this Section that are not inconsistent with the provisions of Labor Code Section 511 shall have full force and effect.

1. Notwithstanding Section 7.1 of this Article, the Company may establish a four-day work week, composed of four (4) ten (10) hour shifts, as a normal 40 hour work week. In such cases, the total number of hours constituting a five-day normal work week will be scheduled over four days of the calendar week, with at least two (2) consecutive days off where the needs of the business permit doing so.

2. When a four-day schedule is in effect, the duration of normal shifts as specified in the Agreement shall be considered to be expanded accordingly in their starting and/or ending times.
3. In administering four-day work weeks, the Company will first offer four-day work weeks to qualified employees on a voluntary basis in seniority order. If there are insufficient qualified volunteers, a four-day work week will be assigned to qualified employees on a rotating basis, starting with the least senior qualified employee in the affected work group(s).
4. When a four-day schedule is in effect as a normal work week, overtime payments shall be made only for time worked in excess of 40 hours in a week or in excess of 10 hours in a day.
5. Pay allowances for absent time (including short term disability absence) occurring during four-day work weeks will be subject to the conditions specified in this Agreement. When pay treatment is calculated on a daily as opposed to an hourly basis (such as bereavement leave days versus short term disability absence), a scheduled day of a four-day work week and a scheduled day of a five-day normal work week will each count as one full day. Otherwise, pay treatment will be handled on an hourly basis.
6. Paid Time Off (PTO) will be charged hour for hour based on the number of hours actually scheduled on the tour in question. If an employee has exhausted PTO and is absent on a day or days that would require the use of PTO time, there will be no pay for the number of hours scheduled on those day(s) of absence.
7. For calendar weeks containing Holidays recognized under the Agreement, the Company will revert to a five-day schedule.
8. Except as otherwise provided above, four-day work weeks will be administered in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Agreement.

A claimed violation of this Article may be grieved and arbitrated pursuant to the applicable provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 8 SELECTION OF SHIFTS

8.1 SELECTION OF SHIFTS

(a) It is the intent of the parties that employees are allowed to remain on preferential shifts based on the employee's seniority, subject to employees' qualifications and the needs of the Company.

A regular employee shall have the qualified right under Section 8.1 (a) to select shifts under the following conditions:

1. When relative seniority in job titles is affected;

2. When the Company adds, deletes or changes a shift (work hours/days).
 - i. Shift schedules shall be posted 10 calendar days prior to the date for which said schedule is to be in effect.
3. All other employees shall select shifts when they become vacant or by request by an employee in the affected work group, but not more than once in a twelve (12) week period.
4. Holidays that fall within the shift schedules will be posted for bid under the guidelines of Article 12.5.

In the event shifts are not filled by selection, the junior qualified employee shall be assigned to the vacant shift, to the extent consistent with the needs of the business.

8.2 SHIFT CHANGES

In the event a regular employee's shift is changed, other than noted in Section 8.1 and on less than 48 hours' notice, this employee shall be compensated at the rate of time and one-half for any hours occurring outside of the previously scheduled regular shift hours, after which the employee will be paid his/her regular wages. With at least 48 hours' notice of a shift change, the employee will continue to be paid at the employee's basic rate for all hours (up to 8) worked in the changed shift. In instances when the shift is changed for the purpose of attending training, the shift change penalty shall be waived if the training is one (1) day, or any portion thereof. There shall be no compounding of overtime as a result of this assignment. Such assignment shall be temporary.

8.3 ASSIGNING WORK HOURS

Company may assign at its discretion hours of work and work weeks to trainees wherein they will receive adequate training, probationary employees and employees temporarily assigned to a temporary headquarters. In addition, regular employees bidding or transferring into a new headquarters shall be assigned at the Company's discretion for a period of time not to exceed one (1) full month or until the next schedule change made as set forth in Section 8.1, whichever occurs later.

ARTICLE 9 PAY DAYS

9.1 PAY PERIOD

Employees shall be paid biweekly. Payment of wages due for the two (2) week period as described in Article 7, Section 7.1, shall be made not later than ten (10) days following the last day of the pay period. All employee's paychecks shall be available at the employees' headquarters no later than quitting time on pay day. However, to the extent permitted by law, the Company may require employees to accept their pay via direct deposit into a U.S. bank account. If a pay day falls on a holiday, the preceding work day shall be the pay day.

ARTICLE 10
SHORT TERM DISABILITY PAY

10.1 SHORT TERM DISABILITY

Employees are eligible for Short Term Disability (STD) coverage in accordance with the terms of the Frontier's Communications STD policy which is in effect at the time the employee becomes eligible for STD coverage.

- a. At its discretion, the Company may require the employee on illness or disability absence (see paragraph (b) below) or STD to provide medical certification of the employee's inability to work due to illness or disability. The Company may also require medical certification that the employee is able return to work following an absence due to illness or disability. Medical updates may be required periodically during such a leave. At the Company's sole discretion, an independent medical examination may be conducted, at the Company's expense.
- b. Coverage under the STD policy begins on the sixth (6th) consecutive work day of an employee's absence due to illness or disability. The first five (5) consecutive working days of absence due to illness will be deducted from an employee's PTO allocation. If an individual does not have any PTO time available these first five (5) days are unpaid. An employee who needs to take an individual day(s) for illness is to use PTO.
- c. Beginning on the sixth (6th) consecutive working day, the employee will be covered by the Company's STD policy and procedures.

The percentage amounts and duration of STD payments under the STD Policy in effect as of January 1, 2014 will remain in effect through December 31, 2016.

A claimed violation of this Section may be grieved and arbitrated pursuant to the applicable provisions of this Agreement.

10.2 STATE DISABILITY

The Company shall provide compensation for all hours of absence in accordance with this Article less any amount due the employee in accordance with California State Disability Insurance (SDI). Employees shall be responsible for timely applying for SDI. Whether or not an employee applies for SDI, the amount an employee is entitled to receive will be deducted from STD.

10.3 MISREPRESENTATION – SHORT TERM DISABILITY

The Company, having just cause to believe an employee misrepresents him/herself as having a bona fide non-industrial illness/injury and/or falsifies a related Company document, may discharge said employee and all Short Term Disability (STD) paid shall be reimbursed to the Company.

10.4 ABSENTEEISM AND TARDINESS COUNSELING

An employee who is absent and/or tardy on two (2) or more occasions in a six (6) month rolling period shall be subject to Company absenteeism and/or tardiness counseling.

10.5 EXCESSIVE ABSENTEEISM AND TARDINESS

When it has been determined, after counseling, an employee has been excessively absent and /or tardy from work and continues to demonstrate excessive absenteeism and /or tardiness, the employee shall be subject to disciplinary action up to and including discharge.

10.6 INDUSTRIAL INJURY/ILLNESS

To the extent required by law (if any), and only to such extent, a regular employee who is off work as a result of an on-the-job injury/illness shall be paid in addition to their Workers' Compensation payments, a sum that makes up the difference between said Worker's Compensation payments and eighty percent (80%) of the employee's contract day rate of pay. This supplemental pay shall cease once the employee has:

- (a) Returned to work;
- (b) Been paid a maximum of six (6) months; or
- (c) Had his/her injury/illness rated permanent and stationary by a Company-selected or approved physician.

10.7 LIGHT DUTY REQUIREMENT

Light duty is available at the discretion of management and will be reviewed as needed. An employee who is off work as a result of an on-the-job injury/illness may be returned to work and given temporary light duty within the employee's ability to perform as determined by a physician. By definition, light duty work is a temporary assignment. A physician shall determine the duration of any such period of temporary and only in terms of when the light duty work may be initiated and/or an employee may return to work. Any such light duty work shall be compensated at the rate of pay for the employee's regular classification (such temporary light duty shall not be used to circumvent the seniority provisions of this Agreement).

10.8 LEAVE OF ABSENCE INDUSTRIAL INJURY

An employee, who, as a result of an industrial injury, has been unable to return to his/her job title for a period of twelve (12) months from when the associated absence began, may have his or her employment terminated by the Company. Prior to the expiration of that 12 month period, such an employee may apply for an unpaid leave of absence from the Company for an additional period of up to six (6) months. If a leave is approved and the employee is then unable to return to his or her job title by the end of such approved unpaid leave of absence, , the Company will give consideration to placing the employee in a vacant job title that, in the Company's judgment, the employee is qualified to fill and is capable of handling. In the event there is no such vacancy, the employee's employment shall be terminated.

While on a leave of absence under this Section, an employee is subject to layoff under Article 16.

ARTICLE 11
PAID TIME OFF

11.1 PTO eligibility: PTO is an allotted number of excused paid days provided to each employee for such things as personal illness, family matters or personal business as well as for vacation. An employee’s total annual allocation of PTO days is available as of January 1 of each year because employees are permitted to borrow prospectively from their annual allocation within the same calendar year. In all instances, use of PTO is subject to the approval of the employee’s supervisor or scheduling. PTO is accrued monthly on the 16th of the month.

Regular employees will be granted PTO days in each calendar year on the following basis:

- a. Annual PTO allotment is accrued on the following basis:

Employees hired on or before August 1, 2010

Length of Service (as of 12/31 of the plan year)	Annual Allocation	Monthly Accrual Rate
	Full-time Employee	Full-time Employee
Fewer than 5 years	20 days	1.667
5 years but fewer than 10 years	25 days	2.083
10 years but fewer than 15 years	27 days	2.250
15 years or more but fewer than 20 years	30 days	2.500
20 years but fewer than 25 years	32 days	2.667
25 or more years	35 days	2.917

Employees hired after August 1, 2010

Length of Service (as of 12/31 of the plan year)	Annual Allocation	Monthly Accrual Rate
	Full-time Employee	Full-time Employee
Less than 1 Year Service as of 1/1 of the plan year	7 days	0.5833
1 Year but fewer than 5 years	20 days	1.667
5 years but fewer than 10 years	25 days	2.083
10 years but fewer than 15 years	27 days	2.250
15 years or more	30 days	2.500

An employee may Carryover up to a maximum of five (5) PTO days (from one calendar year to the next) and will continue to accrue PTO through March 31 of the Carryover year. All Carryover PTO must be exhausted by March 31 of the Carryover year otherwise the employee will not accrue additional PTO in the new calendar year until all of the Carryover PTO is taken.

Employees who are entitled to twenty (20) or more days of PTO under this Article may, with supervisory approval, receive straight time pay, in one five (5) day increment only, in lieu of taking one (1) full week of PTO during the PTO year.

Part time employees are calculated (using accrual rate above) on a pro-rated basis based on the number of regular hours worked.

b. Terminations of Employment

If an employee takes PTO before it has actually accrued, and his or her employment is terminated before the PTO taken has been accrued, the Company will deduct the unearned PTO from the employee's final pay, subject to any provision in state and federal law to the contrary.

11.2 EFFECT OF LEAVES ON ACCRUED PTO: Employees do not accrue PTO time during leaves of absence whether the leave of absence is unpaid or compensated through short- or long-term disability. In any month in which an employee's leave begins or ends, whether the leave is unpaid or compensated through short- or long-term disability, the employee will only accrue PTO in such a month if the employee has completed at least eighty-six (86) regular hours of work (including excused paid time off, but excluding overtime) in that month. For months in which an employee does not accrue PTO, the employee's PTO allotment will be reduced using the table in Section 11.1(a).

11.3 PTO Pay. Payments per week of PTO will be equal to the employee's basic hourly wage rate times the hours the employee is regularly scheduled to work in a normal week.

a. PTO time will continue to accrue during time off due to the following:

- i. Occupational accident(s) not in excess of one year;
- ii. Company paid time on account of holidays, vacations, jury service, or death in the employee's family;
- iii. Any excused time taken off by the employee (without pay by the Company) in order to permit the employee's participation in required reserve, or National Guard, Military Service training (normally not more than two weeks); or,
- iv. Time off duty as a result of the employee's induction into military service, provided the employee has been employed for at least twelve (12) consecutive months prior to the employee's induction.

b. Employees on a leave of absence for any full calendar year will not be eligible for PTO during that year.

11.4 PTO SCHEDULING

- a. By November 15 of each year, the Company will post on appropriate bulletin boards a schedule showing the PTO days, which are available to each employee for the upcoming year.
- b. Between November 30 and December 31, the Company will route the PTO selection schedule. The first routing will be for weeks only; at this time, each employee shall select no more than two (2) full weeks' vacation. The second routing will be for additional weeks only. The third routing will be for full days only.
- c. Employees who have thirty (30) or more PTO days allocated per year may be required to schedule one (1) week (5 days) of PTO during the period January 1 to May 30 annually.
- d. Half days and hour increments will be considered on a first-come, first-serve basis, and approval is based on the needs of the business.
- e. Between January 1 and February 1, the Company will establish the schedule for all employees. The Company will give consideration to each employee's seniority and choice of PTO as is practical and consistent with the needs of the business. Employees not making their PTO selection during the initial routing will forfeit their seniority selection rights.
- f. On or before February 1, the Company shall post the PTO time schedule for employees. Employees shall make their requests to schedule PTO to their immediate supervisor prior to the beginning of their scheduled tour of duty. Such day(s) of PTO will be granted to employees upon request, needs of the business permitting.

11.5 PTO AT TERMINATION

Employees who leave before the end of the year will be paid for earned but unused PTO. If an employee has taken more PTO than the employee accrued and leaves the Company, the employee's final paycheck will be adjusted.

11.6 Employees must use any accrued PTO coincident with any unpaid absence from work associated with a personal leave of absence, with a leave under the Family Medical Leave Act ("FMLA"), with a Military Leave (except that an employee shall not be required to use any available PTO coincident with the normal two (2) week summer reserve training), and/or with the first five (5) days of unpaid absence due to illness or injury that precedes an employee's receipt of short-term disability benefits provided under Article 10.

11.7 A claimed violation of this Article may be grieved and arbitrated pursuant to the applicable provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 12

12.1 The following days will observed as holidays:

New Year's Day

12.2 If a holiday occurs on a day on which the employee is not scheduled, the employee shall receive a Floating Holiday, which may be scheduled with management approval as to the date.

12.3 Subject to Section 12.6 below, a regular full-time employee will be paid a holiday allowance of 8 hours pay at the employee's basic wage rate for each of the holidays, whether or not they perform work; subject to the same proviso, a part-time employee's holiday allowance will be prorated based on the number of hours the employee worked in the preceding 13 weeks, using a 40 hour work week

12.4 Employees will be excused from working a holiday based on the needs of the business. Holiday work shall be assigned on a rotating basis insofar as possible.

12.5 For all hours that employees are required to work on a holiday, they shall receive one and one-half times their base hourly rate in addition to the holiday allowance. For all hours worked over the first eight (8) hours worked on a holiday, employees shall be paid at two and one-half (2½) times their base hourly rate.

12.6 In order to receive the holiday allowance, an employee must work the entire holiday shift (if scheduled) and the entire shift on which the employee is scheduled both immediately preceding and immediately following a holiday.

ARTICLE 13

13.1 OVERTIME PAY

An employee who does work overtime shall be paid as follows:

13.2 OVERTIME - VOLUNTARY CHANGE OF SHIFT

The provisions of Section 13.1 shall not apply if such time worked outside of the scheduled work week is worked at the request of an employee who had taken time off for personal reasons on a scheduled workday during the same calendar week, or who bids or voluntarily accepts a change of shift that results in an employee having less than two (2) days off between scheduled work weeks, in which case the overtime rate shall apply after completion of forty (40) hours in a work week. Weekend Standby, covering the period between 5 pm Friday and 8 am Monday, will be paid at a flat rate of $90. Standby pay will be paid in addition to the appropriate overtime rate of pay. An employee will not be required to standby more than seven consecutive days, nor more than two weekends in a rolling four (4) week period. The Company will provide a Company vehicle and cellular phone or pager for the employee on standby when appropriate and available. In assigning standby, the Company will first ask for volunteers, if there are no volunteers, then the Company will assign the qualified employee with the lowest overtime hours worked.

13.7 CALL OUTS

- (a) When employees are called back after having been released from a regular tour or shift, or before their scheduled starting time of their next regular shift, they shall be paid for not less than two (2) hours at time and one-half their regular rate.

If this occurs on a Holiday, the minimum payment shall be three (3) hours at time-and one-half (in addition to receiving the holiday allowance).

- (b) Call-out time shall be computed from the time the employee leaves home and continues until the employee returns home (or the equivalent) including travel time not to exceed 30 minutes each way, except that when necessary work extends beyond the starting time of the employee’s next regular work day only the traveling time from the employee’s home to the call-out job shall be included in the computation of the call-out time worked and effective with the beginning of the employee’s regular work day, he shall be paid at this regular rate for the regular time worked.
- (c) If a technician called-out to work can clear trouble without leaving home, the technician shall be paid one (1) hour at time and one-half or for the actual time worked if that work time exceeds one (1) hour.

A claimed violation of this Article may be grieved and arbitrated pursuant to the applicable provisions of this Agreement.

13.8 REST PERIODS

- (a) An employee who is required to work for a period of eight (8) hours or more at the overtime rate during the sixteen (16) hour period immediately preceding the beginning of such employee's regular work hours on a regular scheduled work day shall be entitled to a rest period of eight (8) consecutive hours upon completion of such overtime work.

- (c) An employee entitled to a rest period, as provided herein, may nevertheless be required to continue working or may be recalled to work during such rest period, in which event the employee's pay shall be continued at the same rate of pay, either one and one-half (1 1/2) or two (2) times the regular straight time rate, whichever is applicable, and shall continue until the employee has been released from work for a period of eight (8) hours, except that in the case of recall no pay shall be received for time not worked, nor shall such non-work time be used in computing eligibility for double time as set forth heretofore.

13.9 OVERTIME MEALS

An employee will be provided a meal allowance, purchased through the use of the Company issued ProCard, that is customary and reasonable for the period involved, however, the cost of the meal will not exceed the following amounts:

14.3 TEMPORARY TRANSFERS

A regular employee may be temporarily transferred out of his/her headquarters for the purpose of the needs of the Company. The Company shall endeavor to assign such work on a voluntary basis. In the event there are no qualified volunteers and the needs of the Company permit it, the qualified employee with the least amount of seniority shall be assigned.

While assigned away from his/her regular headquarters for other than an overnight trip within the meaning of Section 14.6, an employee will be paid time and one-half for all travel time, outside of regular work hours, to and from their regular headquarters to the temporary work location.

- (3) When an employee, at a temporary headquarters, elects to return home for non-work days, he/she will be paid fifteen dollars ($15) per day. Travel will not be on Company time.

ARTICLE 15 PROMOTIONS

15.1 For promotions to positions within the bargaining unit, the Company may at its sole and unreviewable discretion, hire a new employee, consider and select among existing employees, or both. The Company affirms, however, that its general goal is to make promotions from within its existing workforce. Job openings will be posted electronically.

15.2 When considering only existing employees for promotions, the Company will determine the qualifications for the job, consider many factors and select the employee who is the best qualified in the judgment of the Company. Where employees' qualifications are essentially the same, seniority shall prevail.

15.3 Promotion defined: when an employee moves from one classification in the bargaining unit to a different classification in the bargaining unit which has a higher maximum weekly wage rate than the one from which the employee moved.

15.4 The Company may, at its discretion, fill vacancies by making lateral transfers of employees between equivalently paid classifications or by downgrading an employee, with his or her consent, to a lower paid classification. Nothing herein shall affect the Company's right to demote or downgrade an employee for other reasons.

15.5 The Company may delay the effective date of a promotion by up to 60 days due to force and workload conditions.

15.6 The Company may afford an employee a period of up to ninety (90) calendar days to demonstrate that the employee has the necessary ability to perform the job. If the employee cannot demonstrate the ability to perform the job within the time allotted by the Company, the employee may be retreated into his or her former position if a vacancy in that position exists. Otherwise, the employee will be discharged. If an employee is retreated, the employee shall not be eligible to apply for another promotion or a transfer to another position for a period of eighteen (18) months from the effective date of the employee's retreat.

15.7 An employee who is promoted shall not be eligible to move into another position until the employee has satisfactorily performed in the employee's new assignment for at least twelve (12) months, except with the Company's approval. New hires shall not be eligible for a promotion or transfer until they have satisfactorily completed formal training, and then satisfactorily performed their job for twelve (12) months except with the Company's approval.

15.8 A claim that a senior applicant was not selected for a promotion in violation of this Article may be grieved and arbitrated. In such a case, the Union must prove the Company acted arbitrarily or in bad faith or relied on factually erroneous information in making its decision. A claim regarding any single promotion must be confined to a single grievant.

ARTICLE 16 LAYOFF PROCEDURE

16.1 The Company has the right to reduce its workforce through layoffs, part-timing or voluntary separation incentive programs. All aspects of any voluntary separation incentive program will be determined and implemented at the Company's sole and unreviewable discretion.

16.2 Before commencing a layoff or part-timing of employees, the Company will give the Union at least 14 calendar days' advance notice, which notice will identify the job classification(s) in which a layoff or part-timing is planned, the expected numbers of employees to be laid-off or part-timed, and the projected timetable for implementing the layoff or part-timing. During that 14 day period, the Company will discuss the situation with the Union, and consider in good faith any input offered by the Union regarding the situation. Thereafter, the layoffs or part-timing shall be governed solely by the terms of this Article and the Company's actions to implement those terms. There shall be no requirement for the Company to further discuss or bargain over the decision in question or its effects.

16.3 Layoffs: Layoffs will be conducted on a Company-wide basis. Within each job classification affected by the layoff, employees will be laid off in inverse seniority order, provided that any senior employee who is excluded from layoff by virtue of his or her seniority must, in the Company's judgment, be fully qualified, without additional training, to perform all of the duties he or she is expected to perform or assume in an available position immediately following the layoff. If, in the Company's judgment, the senior employee does not have those requisite qualifications, then that employee may be laid off and the most senior junior employee with the requisite qualifications may be retained and placed in the available position. The retained junior employee will then be exempt from being laid off during the impending layoff.

16.4 The Company will notify the Union of the junior employees retained and exempted from layoff pursuant to the terms of Subsection 16.3.

16.5 Right of recall: a list of laid off employees shall be maintained, by seniority date and job classification in which the employee was assigned at the time of layoff. A laid-off employee shall have a conditional right of recall to a vacancy in the job classification from which the employee was laid off for the 12 month period following the effective date of his or her layoff. Laid-off employees are responsible for keeping the Company apprised of their current home addresses (no P. O. boxes) and telephone numbers.

16.6 In the event an opening arises in a job classification in which an employee has the right of recall, before the Company fills the position with a new hire or a promotion, the Company will offer the position in seniority order to the laid-off employee if, in the judgment of the Company, he or she is then fully qualified without additional training to perform all of the duties of the open position. The offer will be sent by overnight delivery to the employee's most recent address of record. The employee must accept the offer in writing within seven (7) calendar days of delivery, and report for work as soon thereafter as instructed to. If an employee fails to respond to the offer without good cause, or declines the offer, his or her right of recall shall be forfeited. Good cause for purposes of this Article shall mean the employee had no knowledge of the offer's delivery and of the offer of recall itself, and was absent from the place of delivery for the entire seven (7) day period following the delivery for reasons not involving misconduct or fault by the employee in not receiving the offer (examples of good cause for a continuous absence from the place of delivery are being away on a family emergency or a vacation, an illness requiring care away from the delivery address, or working away from home continuously during that period).

16.7 (A) A recalled employee who accepts a recall offer and is reemployed will receive seniority credit for the period of the layoff. A recalled employee will be placed on the step of the wage schedule the employee was on at the time of his or her layoff. Credit will be given for time already spent on that step, but not for the time the employee was on layoff. As a condition to reemployment, the employee must tender back the prorated portion of any termination pay he or she received that is derived by dividing the number of weeks remaining in the recall period at the time the employee is to be reemployed by 52, and by then multiplying that fraction times the termination pay received to determine the amount of money that must be tendered back.

(B) In the event the Company acquires employees from another company or companies in connection with either the purchase of the physical properties of such other company(ies) or of the consolidation or merger of such other company(ies) with the Company, the placement of such employees on the Company's payroll shall take precedent over any rights of recall.

16.8 Layoff Allowance: A laid off employee will receive termination pay in accordance with the terms of the Citizen's Communications plan or policy governing separation pay as of the effective date of the employee's layoff, as such plan may be amended by the Company from time to time.

16.9 Part-timing: In any part-timing program implemented by the Company, the Company will assign employees, by classification and work location, to work essentially the same number of total hours per week, which hours may be assigned in full or part tours. The Company may assign employees to work differing amounts of total hours per week than are being worked by other classifications or at other locations. All compensation, paid time off, paid holiday time, and any other similar benefits will be prorated based on the amount of time worked in a calendar week. There will be no change in how seniority is accrued.

16.10 A claimed violation of this Article may be grieved and arbitrated pursuant to the applicable provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 17 LEAVE OF ABSENCE

17.1 DEATH IN FAMILY

An employee who is absent due to a death in the immediate family will be excused without loss of pay for a reasonable period of time (as determined by their supervisor), based on need and circumstances, usually one to three days. Employees may also be permitted to receive paid time off to serve on an Election Board. Such permission will be granted based on the operational needs of the Company.

17.4 UNION ACTIVITIES

- (a) Absences for Union business: Service and other business needs permitting, any employee who is an authorized representative of the Union and whose Union assignments require that he or she be absent from the Company will, upon request to his or her immediate supervisor, be excused without pay.
- (b) All requests for excused absences shall be made as far in advance as possible and the Company shall act promptly upon each such request.

- (c) The Union will notify the Company in writing of all elected Union Officers and Job Stewards.

17.5 LEAVE OF ABSENCE

A leave of absence without pay may be granted to a regular employee who requests same. Said leave shall not exceed six (6) months. In the event of a request for leave due to the birth of, adoption of or receiving for foster care a child or for the serious illness of a spouse, parent, child, relative who is a dependent of the employee, or the employee, subject to the terms of this Article, the employee will be entitled to leave for up to 12 weeks in a twelve month period. This time shall run concurrently with any other approved leave. Except for a medical leave of absence, due to the employee's illness/disability, an employee must use all accrued PTO prior to taking a leave of absence.

All requests for leaves of absence shall be submitted in writing to the Human Resource Department stating the reason for such request. Such approvals will note in writing the conditions of such leave. Any leave granted in accordance with this provision shall also be subject to the then current provisions of the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993.

17.6 CODE OF CONFLICT

Employees will not work for another employer or engage in other employment during leave of absence, other than Union employment as provided for herein. Such employment will cause the discharge of said employee.

17.7 WITNESS PAY

An employee who is compelled by a lawful subpoena to attend a legal proceeding during his or her working hours shall be excused without pay for the period of time necessary to comply with the subpoena. An employee shall notify supervision as soon as the employee becomes aware he or she has been or will be subpoenaed. If the subpoena relates to a matter involving Company business in which the employee is not a party, the employee will be excused with pay for the period of time necessary to comply with the subpoena.

Where Company tools, equipment, or other property is lost due to an employee's manifest negligence, the employee shall be responsible for reimbursing the Company for the value of the lost item(s), less any depreciation for wear and tear. The Company will replace all worn out or broken tools and will provide a safe place for storage.

Supervisors may perform bargaining unit work to refresh their knowledge of the trade and for purposes of training employees, but not as a substitute for a bargaining unit employee.

A claimed violation of this Section may be grieved and arbitrated pursuant to the applicable provisions of this Agreement.

18.5 TRAVEL TO/FROM TRAINING SCHOOL

Employees traveling to and from training schools paid for by the Company will travel either during non-work hours paid for at the employee's straight time rate of pay or during regular working hours on the last regular work day preceding the first day of said training school. Where all or part of a uniform is lost or damaged due to an employee's carelessness, the employee will be responsible for the cost of replacement.

19.4 The Company retains the unilateral right to promulgate a dress code to further implement these provisions.

ARTICLE 20 GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

20.1 STATEMENT OF INTENT

Should differences arise between the Union and the Company regarding the interpretation or application of any of the terms of the Agreement, or because of the discharge, demotion, or discipline of any employee covered by this Agreement, such differences shall be processed on the grievance form attached hereto and made a part hereof this agreement (see Exhibit A) according to the following procedure. [Exhibit A is to be developed by the parties.] The resolution of a timely grievance at any of the steps provided herein shall be final and binding on the Company, Union, and grievant. The Company may initiate a grievance by a written submission at Step One of the Procedure. A Company-initiated grievance involving the interpretation or application of any of the terms of the Agreement may be submitted to arbitration in accord with the provisions governing the arbitration procedure.

20.2 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE - STEP ONE

A grievance shall be presented in written form by the aggrieved employee and/or a Union Shop Steward to the aggrieved employee's immediate supervisor within thirty (30) calendar days after the date the employee became aware, or should have become aware, of the facts over which he/she is aggrieved. Said supervisor shall have seven (7) calendar days to respond in writing on the grievance form pursuant to the issue(s) raised in the grievance. Any settlement or adjustment of a grievance by the immediate supervisor at Step One shall be binding only for the particular grievance and shall not constitute precedent. Such settlements shall not be used in any legal or arbitration proceeding except in connection with a claim that the settlement has been violated.

20.3 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE - STEP TWO - Local Investigating Committee

In the event that the grievance is not settled by the procedures of Step One, the Union's Chief or Local Shop Steward, shall not later than thirty (30) calendar days after the completion of Step One present the local Manager with the grievance in written form, with a copy to the Company's Human Resources Manager, setting forth the following:

- (a) A statement of the grievance and the facts upon which it is based.
- (b) The Section(s) of the Agreement claimed to have been violated.
- (c) The remedy or correction desired.

Upon receipt of said written grievance the parties shall establish a Local Investigating Committee. The Local Investigating Committee will be composed of the local Manager, the supervisor involved in the grievance, and the Chief or Local Shop Steward.

- (1) The local Manager and the Chief or Local Shop Steward will arrange for meetings of the Committee.
- (2) The Committee shall meet as soon as reasonably possible and shall make a full and complete investigation of all of the factors pertinent to the grievance. If necessary to gain all of the information required to resolve the grievance, the Committee may hold investigative interviews with other persons involved in the dispute. By agreement of the parties, the grievant shall be permitted to be present during these interviews. The grievant will not be a party to the disposition of the grievance, nor is the grievant's concurrence required for the Committee to reach a settlement of the grievance. Grievant, however, does have the right to point out the existence of other facts or witnesses favorable to grievant's case.
- (3) Within thirty (30) calendar days following the filing of a grievance, the Local Investigating Committee shall prepare a report of its findings, which shall include: (i) a mutually agreed to brief narration of all the events and factors involved in the dispute; and (ii) the Committee's mutually agreed to findings with respect thereto. If the Committee has reached an agreeable disposition of the grievance, the report shall also contain a statement to that effect and the reasons therefor.

If the grievance is not resolved in thirty (30) calendar days following its being timely filed, the grievance shall be automatically referred to Step Three of the Grievance Procedure.

The referral shall include a summary of the reasons why the Local Investigating Committee could not resolve the grievance.

20.4 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE - STEP THREE - Review Committee

A Review Committee composed of the Union's Business Representative and Assistant Business Manager, Company's Human Resources Manager, and Vice President, or their representatives, shall meet within thirty (30) calendar days and attempt to settle the grievance. The Chairman of the Committee (appointed by the Company) shall maintain an agenda of the current cases referred to the Committee. If there are cases pending on the agenda, the Committee shall meet at least once each calendar month, unless the Chairman and the Secretary (appointed by the Union) agree to waive such meeting. If the grievance is resolved by the Review Committee before the expiration of the thirty (30) calendar day time limit following the date of referral from the preceding step, the Committee shall issue a "Memorandum of Disposition" (copies to each member of the Committee, the grievant, and such others as the Committee determines).

20.5 GENERAL PROVISIONS

- (a) The scope of a grievance may be enlarged or reduced at any Step if done in writing and with the mutual consent of the parties.

- (b) If a grievance is not presented or processed within the time limits specified above, unless the parties have agreed to an extension of time or the delay is caused by the party against whom the grievance is filed, the grievance and the issue(s) contained therein shall be considered settled and the underlying issues resolved.
- (c) In the event the party against whom the grievance is filed fails to meet or respond to a grievance in accordance with the time limits specified above, and the grieving party wishes to maintain the grievance, the grieving party must immediately advance the grievance to the next step of the grievance procedure in accord with the applicable time limit for doing so.
- (d) All meetings in the grievance procedure will be held at times and places mutually agreeable to the parties. Grievance meetings may be conducted telephonically or by other “live” electronic means.
- (e) No more than one (1) employee will normally be excused during their scheduled hours to attend a grievance meeting on any given work day, and in all cases, whether or not an employee will be excused is subject to the needs of the business. Employees will be excused with pay to discuss a grievance involving one or more of the following issues, provided the grievance does not involve any issue other than those listed below:
 - 1. The discharge or suspension of an employee;
 - 2. The demotion of an employee for misconduct;
 - 3. The issuance to an employee of a written disciplinary warning, and
 - 4. An alleged violation of Article 15, Promotions, because a junior employee was selected over a senior employee to fill a promotion.

20.6 ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

All differences of opinion that may arise between the Company and the Union concerning the interpretation or application of the terms or provisions of this Agreement that are specifically made subject to arbitration, which have been processed and have not been satisfactorily settled through this grievance procedure within sixty (60) calendar days after the completion of Step Three, shall be submitted to arbitration in the manner and form hereafter provided. There shall be arbitrated only the matters specifically made subject to arbitration in this Agreement. Unless a matter has been specifically made subject to arbitration, it shall be deemed to be excluded from arbitration by this Agreement and such matters shall not be submitted to or considered in arbitration.

- (a) Upon request by either party to the other for arbitration, the parties hereto shall within thirty (30) calendar days, appoint an arbitrator. The arbitrator shall schedule the arbitration hearing as soon as practical following referral.
- (b) In the event that the Union and the Company cannot agree upon the neutral arbitrator, then the selection shall be referred to the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service to nominate three (3) persons for the arbitrator. If, within thirty (30) calendar days from the receipt of the three (3) names, the parties shall fail to agree upon the arbitrator, the Company and the Union shall each challenge one (1) of the nominees, the party having first challenge to be decided by lot. The remaining nominee shall become the arbitrator whose decision shall be final and binding upon both parties. The cost, if any, of the neutral arbitrator and incidental expenses mutually agreed to in advance shall be borne equally by both parties.

- (c) In making an award, the arbitrator's decision shall be governed by the express terms of this Agreement. The decision of the arbitrator made in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement shall be final and binding on the parties, provided that such decision shall not in any way add to, disregard, or modify any of the provisions of this Agreement, or rule on any question except the one submitted for arbitration. In addition, an arbitrator may not accept or consider any evidence that would vary or change the plain meaning of an Agreement provision that is not ambiguous on its face. These limitations on the arbitrator's authority shall not prevent an arbitrator from interpreting a provision of this Agreement that is ambiguous.
- (d) Scope and Retroactivity of Awards: An arbitrator's remedy shall be limited to the specific grievance submitted for arbitration. An arbitrator's determination may or may not be retroactive as the equities of the particular case shall demand, but in any case where the determination is retroactive, the retroactive effect or relief shall be limited to 10 working days prior to the date the grievance is submitted at Step 1 of the grievance procedure.
- (e) If a case is withdrawn from arbitration, such withdrawal shall settle the grievance(s) and resolve any issue(s) contained therein unless the parties expressly agree to a different disposition. In addition, all grievances which have been held pending the outcome or disposition of the withdrawn case, as well as any issues contained therein, shall be considered settled and resolved unless the parties expressly agree to a different disposition.

20.7 INDIVIDUAL DISPUTE ADJUSTMENT

Nothing in this Agreement in any manner affects the right of an individual employee or group of employees to present grievances to the Company under this Article nor affects the rights of the Union under the National Labor Relations Act, as amended. The Company agrees, however, that after a grievance arising under any provision of this Agreement has been referred to a Representative of the Union and such Representative has dealt with a Company Representative with respect thereto, no Company Representative will adjust or attempt to adjust the grievance with the employee or employees involved unless a Representative of the Union is first given an opportunity to be present at the adjustment.

Employees at the maximum basic hourly wage rate (see Section 1 of this Article) will receive their annual increases in a lump sum. Such lump sum payments will not be included in the calculation of any other compensation payable to an employee except as required by law. Notwithstanding the forgoing, when an employee who is at the maximum basic hourly wage rate specified in Section 1 of this Article achieves an overall ranking of 4 or higher under the performance assessment chart that appears above, he or she will be awarded, instead of the lump sum payment specified above, a basic hourly wage rate that exceeds the maximum basic hourly wage rate specified in Section 1 of this Article. That new basic hourly wage rate will be determined by applying the merit increase award to the employee's current basic hourly wage rate.

25.4 CERTIFICATION DIFFERENTIAL

In order to encourage employees to voluntarily acquire additional training and the associated skills, the Company will increase the hourly pay of those Sales & Service Technicians who achieve the following certification(s):

Comp TIA A+	$0.25 per hour increase
Comp TIA Network +	$0.25 per hour increase
CCNA	$0.50 per hour increase

Note: This Differential will be added to an employee's basic hourly wage rate even if it would otherwise cause that rate to exceed the maximum basic hourly wage rate specified in Section 1 of this Article. Any employee attaining CCNA certification will receive credit for the A+ and Network+ certifications and will receive a total increase of $1.00 to his/her basic hourly wage rate. In order to continue to receive any certification differentials, the Company will require certified employees to provide documentation that certifications are up to date.

Employees may seek reimbursement for the cost of courses and examinations to acquire such certification under the terms of the Tuition Reimbursement Program. Time spent by an employee in training or in preparation for the certification examinations shall be on the employee's own time.

25.5 IN-CHARGE DIFFERENTIAL

Employee appointed to In-Charge status shall receive a differential of $1.25 per hour.

25.6 INELIGIBILITY FOR BONUS and PROFIT SHARING PROGRAMS

Employees are not eligible to participate in the Frontier Incentive Plan or for profit sharing compensation.

Attachment 2

Memorandum of Agreement on Proposals or Counterproposals on the Subject of the Contracting and/or Outsourcing of Work by the Company that Preceded the Final Agreement Reached by the Parties in August 2007

During 2006 – 2007 negotiations for a new collective bargaining agreement covering Colusa/Shingletown employees, the parties exchanged various proposals and counterproposals on the subjects of the contracting and/or outsourcing of work by the Company. For purposes of this letter, the term contracting of work includes the “subcontracting” of work.

The parties have agreed that neither of them may make any direct or indirect reference, in any manner, in any forum, to any of the proposals or counterproposals on the subject of the contracting and/or outsourcing of work by the Company that preceded the final agreement reached by the parties in August 2007. This agreement applies to any and every forum, including but not limited to the grievance process, grievance arbitration, and judicial or administrative proceedings. It includes but is not limited to any and all conversations, correspondence including e-mails, and the like associated with such proposals and counterproposals

It is agreed that the parties’ respective rights associated with the contracting and/or outsourcing of work by the Company are governed solely by the applicable provisions of the final Agreement, which include but are not limited to Sections 4.7, 4.8, and 4.9 of Article 4, Company-Union Relations. Any dispute involving, in whole or in part, the contracting and/or outsourcing of work by the Company, or any other matter in any way associated therewith, shall be governed solely by the applicable provisions of the final Agreement.

In the event that either party, in a grievance arbitration proceeding, presents or attempts to present any evidence that in any manner reveals proposals or counterproposals on the subject of the contracting/subcontracting and/or outsourcing of work by the Company that preceded the final agreement reached by the parties in August 2007, the arbitrator must permanently recuse himself or herself from the proceeding. Such recusal shall not preclude the party adversely affected thereby from seeking any other relief, including equitable relief and/or legal damages.

It is further agreed that the provisions of this agreement may only be modified or waived by an express written agreement to do so signed by the Company’s Vice President – Labor Relations and the Union’s Business Manager. It is also agreed that this Memorandum of Agreement will be placed in the parties’ collective bargaining agreement, and be evergreen.
