Employees placed on Disciplinary Probation may be dismissed for failure to meet any requirement imposed as a condition of such status. Employees on Disciplinary Probation do not retain senior rights during a layoff or have permanent status. An employee, who is terminated for a specific violation identified in the notice of Disciplinary Probation, does not have appeal rights.

7.2 Background

Disciplinary action may be imposed after the employer has complied with pre-disciplinary procedures that are consistent with court decisions, state law, and the memorandum of understanding. These provide the employee with written information about the charges, the grounds for such charges, the documentation supporting such action, the type of disciplinary action intended, copies of applicable personnel rules and appeal procedures. A pre-disciplinary hearing is scheduled where the employee (or representative) may respond to the charges. Following this hearing, and a review of the facts, discipline may or may not be imposed.

Disciplinary actions, can include written warnings, suspension, demotion, or termination. Disciplinary Probation could be imposed, following pre-disciplinary procedures, in cases where the Department Head or the City Administrator determine the the employee has committed a serious offense that warrants termination. If the Department Head or City Administrator believe that the employee could improve if given an opportunity for rehabilitation, this disciplinary action could be imposed.

When disciplinary probation is imposed, the employee is provided with a list of violations that will result in immediate termination. If an employee violates a rule that is not on the list, the matter is handled as a separate disciplinary action.

Upon successful completion of the probationary period, the employee is returned to permanent status will full restoration of seniority rights.

During the examination, the physician may request that the employee provide a urine sample for drug or alcohol screening if the physician suspects the employee is under the influence of drugs or alcohol. The decision to require a fitness for duty test must be based on a reasonable and articulable belief that the employee is using alcohol or a prohibited drug on the basis of specific, contemporaneous physical, behavioral, or performance indicators of probable alcohol and drug use.
