

Jairus Ayeta Line School Scholarships

Sponsored by:

Ever Dreamed of being a Lineman?

The utility industry needs skilled and trained lineworkers now more than ever. A career as a lineman comes with IBEW union representation, exceptional pay and topnotch benefits – but most importantly, it’s a challenging, fulfilling, rewarding and exciting job that’s unlike any other trade. You can make a real difference by powering your community!

Apply Now:

GoodJobs@IBEW1245.com

Submissions Accepted:

October 1 - 31, 2022

Application Process

- Must live in IBEW 1245's jurisdiction
- Be first generation to work in the utility industry
- Proof of one year of Algebra
- Proof of High School Diploma/GED
- Two letters of recommendation from non-relative instructor, principal, counselor, or supervisor
- 500 word essay: Topic - The Labor Movement and/or working in the Electric Utility Industry
- CDL permit desired

Scholarship Benefits

- All expenses paid to NW Line JATC (VOLTA) in Oregon
- Tools, Fees, and Lodging
- $60 meals per day
- Two recipients will be selected to receive this scholarship

The Jairus Ayeta Scholarship, established in 2020, is named in honor of an IBEW 1245 apprentice who was the victim of a fatal off-road tragedy on August 4, 2018 while restoring power at the Carr Fire outside of Redding, CA.