

NV Energy is the premier provider of energy for Nevada and has served citizens in northern Nevada for over 150 years, and southern Nevada since 1906. We are committed to creating an atmosphere where our employees are treated with dignity and respect and have the opportunity to offer their ideas and viewpoints. Our employees set us apart and allow us to meet complex challenges to continue to achieve success. Now's your chance to join our team!

Immediate job opening for a Substation Electrician (Full Time, Regular) headquartered in Reno, Nevada. The position offers a starting wage of $57.43/hour. Journeymen Substation Electricians who join NV Energy will be eligible for these additional incentives:

Up to $25K sign-on bonus
Relocation assistance

How to Apply: Visit the Careers section of the NV Energy website at www.nvenergy.com/company/careers/

Job Responsibilities & Qualifications: An employee who is qualified by training and knowledge to construct, erect, and maintain substations. Must be qualified by training and knowledge to install, maintain, test, and repair substation, generating station and distribution equipment including but not limited to transformers, regulators, tap changing devices, circuit breakers, switchboards, generators, and other rotary equipment. Must be qualified to perform switching. Must be able to lay out, assemble, install, test, and maintain electrical fixtures, apparatus and wiring. When under direct supervision may be required to perform work on protective relaying, communications equipment, Supervisory control and related equipment. Must have successfully completed the Electrician Apprentice training program or equivalent.

Essential Education, Skills, and Environment

Education and Work Experience

High School Diploma or GED and completion of Substation Electrician apprentice program with IBEW Journeyman Status.

Specialized Knowledge and Skills

Transformers, switching, Circuit Breakers & Switchboards

Equipment and Applications

PCs, word processing, spreadsheet and database software.

Work Environment and Physical Demands

May require work in outdoor weather conditions, and near extreme heat. Some exposure to loud noises required. Some overnight travel required

Benefits: NV Energy offers competitive medical, dental and vision insurance plans. Other important benefits at NV Energy include life insurance, wellness, flexible spending accounts, tuition reimbursement, 401(k) with a Company match (6%)