

Jairus Ayeta Line School Scholarships

Sponsored by:

IBEW 1245
THE POWER IS IN OUR HANDS

Ever Dreamed of being a Lineman?

The utility industry needs skilled and trained lineworkers now more than ever. A career as a lineman comes with IBEW union representation, exceptional pay and topnotch benefits – but most importantly, it's a challenging, fulfilling, rewarding and exciting job that's unlike any other trade. You can make a real difference by powering your community!

Apply Now:

GoodJobs@IBEW1245.com with attachments in PDF or JPG

Submissions Accepted:

Spring: March 1 - 31 & Fall: October 1 - 31

Application Process

- Must live in IBEW 1245's jurisdiction
- Be first generation to work in the utility industry
- Proof of High School Diploma or GED
- Transcript showing one year of Algebra
- Photo of CA or NV driver's license
 - CDL while not required is preferred
- Two letters of recommendation from non-relative instructor, principal, counselor, or supervisor
- Current Resume
- 500 word essay: Topic - The Labor Movement and/or working in the Electric Utility Industry

Scholarship Benefits

- All expenses paid to NW Line JATC (VOLTA) in Oregon
- Tools, Fees, and Lodging
- $50 meals per day
- Two recipients will be selected biannually to receive this scholarship

The Jairus Ayeta Scholarship, established in 2020, is named in honor of an IBEW 1245 apprentice who was the victim of a fatal off-road tragedy on August 4, 2018 while restoring power at the Carr Fire outside of Redding, CA.