ARTICLE XII
PAGA

This Section applies to any representative PAGA claims class and/or individual claims that arise or are pending during the term of any of the Parties' collective bargaining agreements, regardless of when they were filed with any court or administrative agency. Per Labor Code Section 2699.6, the Parties agree that the requirements of the California Labor Code Private Attorney's General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") are hereby expressly waived in clear and unambiguous terms. It is mutually agreed that this Agreement prohibits any and all violations of the sections of the California Labor Code that are listed on section 2699.5 of the California Labor Code and would be redressable pursuant to the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") and its subsequent amendments. All such claims will be resolved exclusively through the grievance and arbitration procedures set forth in this Agreement and may not be brought in a court of law or before any administrative agency such as the California Labor Commissioner. Notwithstanding the time limits for filing a grievance set forth in this Agreement, in order to initiate a claim for a violation of any and all violations of the sections of the California Labor Code that are listed in Section 2699.5 of the California Labor Code, the Union or the aggrieved employee shall be permitted to file a grievance within the statutory period for filing PAGA claims, which is presently one year from the date of the violation. This Agreement expressly waives the requirements of PAGA and authorizes the parties to the dispute (whether the Union or the employee in his/her individual capacity) to mutually select an arbitrator, who will have final and binding authority to award any and all remedies available under the California Labor Code, except the award of penalties under PAGA that would be payable to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency. Except for a civil action alleging a violation of any of the California Labor Code provisions outlined in Section 2699.5, nothing in this PAGA Waiver should be construed to waive an employee's right to pursue any other civil action (in the appropriate forum outside of the grievance process) against an Individual Employer. All fees of the arbitration, including but not limited to the arbitrator's fees and the fees of any court reporter, shall be paid by the Employer.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto by their duly authorized representatives have caused this Agreement to be executed this 29th day of January 2026.
